

Argeş 11 – variety obtained by hybridizing Notorius x Heinz 2274

Plant characteristics:

- Determinate growth variety with medium vigor;
- Forms 5–6 inflorescences per plant, with 6–7 flowers per inflorescence;

Fruit characteristics:

- Large fruits (average weight 180 g), elongated, bright red (44A), with few seeds, firm flesh, pleasant taste (medium acidity of 3.5 g/l malic acid and 4.1% soluble dry matter); rich in antioxidants and organo-mineral substances;

Ripening period: medium-season variety;

Average yield:

- The plant can produce, on average, 4.5–5 kg/plant;

Tolerance:

- Shows tolerance to harmful organisms specific to tomatoes;
- Recommended for conventional or organic cultivation, in protected spaces and in open field with support system.

Production direction:

- Suitable for fresh consumption and processing, variety resistant to storage;

Maintainer: INCDBH Ștefănești

